

What is the Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™?

Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™ is a registered charitable organization committed to fostering health equity for all women in Canada. Our charitable registration number is 860661149RR0001.

How is the Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™ funded?

As a registered charity, the Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™ receives donations and sponsorships from a wide variety of sources. Shoppers Drug Mart is our founding partner, it funds all our general administrative expenses, allowing 100% of customer donations to go directly toward supporting fostering health equity for all women in Canada.

What are the Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™ funding priorities?

The Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™ is committed to fostering health equity for all women in Canada. Through our campaigns, partnerships and programs, our key funding priorities include women's mental health, menstrual equity, gender-based violence awareness and women's health research.

Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™ does not fund:

- Organizations that are not Revenue Canada designated charities.
- Individuals
- Fundraising initiatives, including auctions, benefits, dinners, exhibits, conferences and sports events.
- Courtesy or journal advertising campaigns
- Endowments or capital campaigns
- Sports sponsorships
- Religious organizations
- Individual fundraising campaigns (walks, runs, bikes etc.)

Which organizations does Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™ support?

Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™ is proud to support a growing network of national and local partners working to make care more equitable and accessible for all women in Canada. To learn more, click here.

How can I apply for a Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™ grant?

For information on how to apply for a community grant, please visit this apply for funding link.

How do I submit a request for product donations or gift cards?

Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™ provides only monetary donations for applications that meet the criteria for funding programs.

How can I donate to the Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™?

There are many ways you can make a difference, both big and small, by donating to the Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™.

- Online donation:
 - By making a meaningful gift to the Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™, you are supporting women across the country. It is through your generosity that we can invest in programs that will help the support women's health issues and ensure equitable and accessible care is available, so all women in Canada can live healthier lives. Donate today.
- In-store at your local Shoppers Drug Mart
 - Donate at your local Shoppers Drug Mart.

I donated to the Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™. Am I eligible for a tax receipt?

We thank you for donating in support of the Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™. The Foundation issues tax receipts for online donations of $20 or more. When a donation is made online, an electronic tax receipt will be delivered via email, in PDF format. Tax receipts will not be issued for in-store donations. For more information on tax receipt guidelines, please visit the Canada Revenue Agency website's charity giving section.

I lost my donation receipt. How can I get a copy for my income tax records?

We can help you obtain a copy for your records. Please email your name, mailing address, phone number, amount of the donation and the approximate donation date to shoppersfoundation@shoppersdrugmart.ca and one of our team members will be in touch.

How can I get in touch with the Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health™?

We'd love to hear from you! Email us at shoppersfoundation@shoppersdrugmart.ca.